

“Managing the Master’s Business”

(Luke 16:1-13)

9/1/24

2 Timothy 3:16-17

God created us for close, personal relationship with Himself now, not just in the afterlife.

James 4:8

The Holy Spirit partners with you to help you accomplish the will of God! That’s something you cannot do on your own.

Romans 5:20-21

Living with integrity means being presented with a choice and making a conscious decision to do what is right based on a higher moral code, rather than allowing your decision to be influenced by how the outcome may affect you positively or negatively.

Luke 16:1-13

All of us will someday have to give an account to God for how we handle what He entrusts us with.

Revelation 20:11-13

There is no escaping your appointment with God.

1 Timothy 5:24-25

Our actions can have consequences in this life, not just the next.

God expects us to be faithful with what He gives us and do our best with what we have.

Luke 16:1

The unjust manager wasn't doing a bad job with the master's money, he was using it on himself.

Matthew 25:14-30

How would God rate my performance managing His resources?

Luke 16:9

"Here's the lesson: Use your worldly resources to benefit others and make friends..."

** (Help those in need, Further the Gospel, and create support networks around yourself so you can multiply your efforts far beyond anything you could do on your own.)

As you prove yourself a capable, faithful servant, God will entrust you with even more because He knows He can count on you to take good care of His business.

Our fitness to receive the true riches of heaven can be tested by how we handle our material possessions (AND) Our attitude towards money is indicative of our submission to or rebellion against God's lordship in our lives

Luke 16:13